Marvel freelance credits (past): Penciler on CONAN, JOHN CARTER OF MARS
Marvel freelance credits (present). Penciler on THUNDERCATS, BULLWINKLE & ROCKY, AX (An upcoming Graphic Novel), DAMAGE CONTROL.
My hobbies are: Drawing, movies, drawing, and uh . . . like . . . drawing.
The single work of which I am most proud is: Not yet, guys, not yet.
My pet peeves are: Pride, anger, lust, envy, greed, gluttony, and — um — what was the seventh? Oh — and add mendacity
My place of birth is: San Turce, Puerto Rico, Jewel of the Caribbean
My greatest accomplishment outside the comics field is: The true friendship of my daughter Luisa and my wife Sheila
My oddest habit is: Going off to the planet Mongo when people around me talk politics, sports or disfiguring illnesses
If they were making a movie of my life, I'd like to see my part played by: An animated version of me by Chuck Jones
The reason I got into comics was: The only place I could tell stories visually without getting into the movie business
People who knew me in High School thought I was: "THE DIZ" — An impression I furthered by painting that name in chrome yellow on the back of my leather jacket
My favorite performers are: Anybody in any field who is a thorough pro.
The last good book I read was: MOBY DICK. Period
The last good movie I saw was: "EMPIRE OF THE SUN." It's fun to watch an American artist mature. Long life to Steven Spielberg!
The biggest influences on my work include: Everybody. Good, bad, worse. They either tell me what to stay away from, or what to be inspired by.
My greatest unfulfilled ambition in the comics field is: To do a job of such magnificence, such skill, that it forces Warren Kremer to say something other than "Uh-huh. Okay. Nuttin' wrong wit' that . . ."
The worst part of my job is: Staring at blank paper.
When nobody's looking I like to: You kidding? That's MY business!
The one thing I really want the world to know about me is: That I would make a great mayor of NYC. I'd solve the traffic problem, make the subways fit for humans, etc. . . . Barring my candidacy, I can always go to the planet Mongo, where I can
